

41315*10-24 CAP NUT ZP

UPC: 085937413154

Country of Origin:

UNSPSC: 31161705

China

Commodity: Cap nuts

The acorn nut or dome nut is a type of fastener which gets its name from its shape. It is a nut that has a domed top to prevent contact with the external thread.

Product Attributes

|                          |                                                                                                       |
|--------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Brand Name               | Minerallac Company                                                                                    |
| Sub Brand                | Cully                                                                                                 |
| Type                     | Specialty Nuts                                                                                        |
| Application              | Cap nuts serve two main purposes: (1) as decorative pieces, and (2) as covers for projecting threads. |
| Material of Construction | Steel                                                                                                 |
| Finish                   | Zinc Plated                                                                                           |
| Nut Type                 | Acorn                                                                                                 |
| Thread Size              | 24 TPI                                                                                                |
| Thread Type              | Internal Threads                                                                                      |
| Height                   | 0.410" IN                                                                                             |
| Width                    | 0.369" IN                                                                                             |
| Size                     | #10                                                                                                   |
| Color                    | Silver                                                                                                |
| Hex Size                 | 0.190" IN                                                                                             |
| Outside Diameter         | 0.340" IN                                                                                             |

Item Status: Active

Standard Qty: 100

Minerallac Company

Tel: 800-927-3293

Fax: 800-824-8942

www.minerallac.com